

Evaluation Criteria

The content design, and thus the selection of presentations for each session, is the responsibility of the respective session organizers. They base their decisions on the following weighting:

- Practical benefit for the participants and relevance to the session (25%)
- Technical quality, originality, and degree of innovation of the contribution (content, methodology, context) (30%)
- Structure, clarity, and comprehensibility of the abstract (15%)
- Adequate consideration of regulatory and legal aspects (15%)
- Contribution to the internationality and diversity of the session (15%)
